AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR, MATTERS RELATING TO LANDLORDS AND TENANT CULTIVATORS OF PADDY LANDS, FOR THE UTILIZATION OF AGRICULTURAL LANDS IN ACCORDANCE WITH AGRICULTURAL POLICIES ; FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AGRARIAN DEVELOPMENT COUNCILS, TO PROVIDE FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A LAND BANK ; TO PROVIDE THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AGRARIAN TRIBUNALS, TO PROVIDE FOR THE REPEAL OF THE AGRARIAN SERVICES ACT, NO. 58 OF 1979 ; AND FOR MATTERS CONNECTED THEREWITH OR INCIDENTAL THERETO.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to set out a National Policy in relation to the rights of tenant cultivators' and the restrictions to be imposed on persons using agricultural land for non-agricultural purposes in order to ensure maximum utilization of agricultural land for agricultural production :

Preamble.

NOW THEREFORE be it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows :—

1. This Act may be cited as the Agrarian Development Act, No. 46 of 2000.

Short Title.

PART I

RIGHTS OF PERSONS WHO CULTIVATE PADDY LANDS

2. (1) The owner of an extent of paddy land in respect of which there is a tenant cultivator, who intends to sell such extent, shall in the first instance make an offer to sell such extent to the tenant cultivator. Such offer shall be made to the tenant cultivator by communication in writing, and sent by registered post, stating the price at which he offers to sell such extent. The owner shall cause a copy of such communication to be sent by registered post to the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such paddy land is situated.

Paddy lands cultivated by a tenant cultivator to be offered for sale to tenant cultivators.

(2) If upon receipt of the communication under subsection (1), the tenant cultivator is willing to purchase such extent of paddy land at the price offered by the owner, he shall indicate his willingness to the owner and the Agrarian Development Council by communication in writing sent by registered post and the Council shall fix a period within which the transfer shall be completed.

(3) (a) Where the tenant cultivator is willing to purchase such extent of paddy land but states that the price offered by the owner is excessive, the Agrarian Development Council may in consultation with the owner determine a price which in its opinion is reasonable, having regard to the market value of paddy lands in the area and proceed to fix a period within which the transfer shall be completed.

(b) On the price being fixed, the tenant cultivator shall thereupon purchase such extent of paddy land either at the price offered by the owner or as determined by the Agrarian Development Council, as the case may be, and shall complete the transfer within the period fixed.

(4) Where the Commissioner-General is satisfied, after inquiry, that a tenant cultivator has failed and neglected to act in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) or (3), the Commissioner-General shall take action to evict such tenant cultivator in accordance with the provisions of section 8.

(5) Any transfer by the owner of any extent of paddy land in contravention of the provisions of this section shall after inquiry be declared null and void by the Commissioner-General and shall render the person in occupation of such extent under such transfer, liable to be evicted in accordance with the provisions of section 8.

(6) Where a transfer of any extent of paddy land is declared null and void by the Commissioner-General a copy of such declaration shall be transmitted under section 5 to the Registrar of Lands of the District in which such extent of paddy land is situated.

3. (1) A tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land may after giving written notice of his intention to transfer or to cede his rights which intention shall be intimated to the Farmers' Organisation and the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such extent is situate by registered post transfer or cede his rights in respect of such extent to the owner or landlord of such extent.

Transfer and
of tenant
cultivator.

(2) Every transfer or cession under subsection (1) shall be notarially executed. A copy of the instrument of transfer or cession shall be forwarded by the landlord or owner of the extent of paddy land by registered post to the Farmers Organisation and the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such extent is situated.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) or subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

4. (1) The Viharadipathi or trustee of a temple may, within twelve months of the enactment of this section make an application in writing to the Commissioner-General to have an extent of paddy land not exceeding two acres owned by such temple and being cultivated by tenant cultivators exempted from the application of section 6.

Exemption of
temple from
rights.

(2) (a) The Commissioner-General shall thereupon cause an inquiry to be held in respect of that application and if there is a tenant cultivator in that extent of paddy land the Commissioner-General shall make order exempting such extent of paddy land from the application of the provisions of section 6, only after affording such tenant cultivator an opportunity to make representations.

(b) The Commissioner-General shall in such order require the tenant cultivator or tenant cultivators to vacate the extent of paddy land on or before the date specified in the order.

(3) Where the tenant cultivator fails to vacate the extent of paddy land in compliance with such Order, he may be evicted therefrom in accordance with the provisions of section 8, provided that the Commissioner-General shall take action to evict such tenant cultivator only after any compensation payable to him under this section has been paid in full by the applicant.

(4) Where the tenant cultivator refuses to accept the compensation specified in the Order such compensation may be deposited with the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such paddy land is situate. Any compensation so deposited on or before the specified date shall be deemed to have been accepted by the tenant cultivator, and that Agrarian Development Council shall, on the application of the tenant cultivator to whom such compensation is payable, make payment to him.

Order determining the maximum
extent of paddy land.

5. (1) The maximum extent of paddy land that can be cultivated by a tenant cultivator shall be five acres. For the purposes of this section a paddy land which is cultivated by the spouse of a tenant cultivator or by a child of such tenant cultivator who is less than eighteen years of age shall be deemed to be a paddy land which is being cultivated by such tenant cultivator.

(2) The Minister may, subject to the provisions of subsection (1), by Order published in the Gazette, determine the extent of paddy land which can be cultivated by a tenant cultivator within any district to which such Order relates :

Provided however, that, where the Commissioner-General is satisfied after holding a due inquiry that a tenant cultivator is also an owner cultivator of an extent, of paddy land which is not less than five acres in extent the Commissioner-General may declare that the tenant cultivator shall not be entitled to the rights to which a tenant cultivator is entitled under the provisions of this Act and accordingly the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) shall be applicable to such tenant cultivator.

(3) Where a tenant cultivator is in possession of an extent of paddy land which is greater in extent than the extent of paddy land which has been determined by an Order made under subsection (2), he shall be entitled to select the extent of paddy land which he is entitled to cultivate, and shall vacate the balance extent of paddy land on being ordered to do so by Commissioner-General.

(4) Where a tenant cultivator fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (3) he shall be evicted from the extent of paddy land in excess of the extent specified in the Order under subsection (2) and the provisions of section 8 shall apply to any such eviction.

(5) Where the tenant cultivator vacates such extent of paddy land the landlord shall be entitled to cultivate such extent of paddy land.

6. (1) When a person who leases out an extent of paddy land under an oral or written contract such person shall, if he is the cultivator of such land and is a citizen of Sri Lanka, be the tenant cultivator of such extent of paddy land for the purposes of this Act.

Where the lessee of a paddy land should be deemed to be a tenant cultivator.

(2) Where two or more persons have leased out an extent of paddy land under an oral or written agreement and cultivated such extent of land either jointly or in rotation, each one of such persons shall if he is a citizen of Sri Lanka be the tenant cultivator of such extent of paddy land for the season in which he is the cultivator of such paddy land.

(3) Where a new oral or written agreement is entered into in respect of an extent of paddy land after the date of commencement of this Act, subsections (1) and (2) shall not be applicable to such paddy land.

(4) Where any person who is a permit holder holding an extent of paddy land upon a permit issued under the Land Development Ordinance subject to the condition that such permit holder himself shall cultivate such extent of paddy land, leases out such extent of paddy land to a person who cultivates such extent of paddy land the person so cultivating shall not be deemed to be a tenant cultivator within the meaning of this Act.

Right of tenant cultivators ; provision in regard to certain evicted tenants of paddy lands ; and restriction of eviction of tenants of paddy lands.

7. (1) A tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land shall have the right to occupy and use such extent in accordance with the provisions of this Act and shall not be evicted from such extent notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any oral or written agreement by which such extent has been let to such tenant cultivator, and no person shall interfere with the occupation and use of such extent by the tenant cultivator and the landlord shall not demand or receive from the tenant cultivator any rent in excess of the rent required by this Act, to be paid in respect of such extent to the landlord.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in any other written law, the tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land which is purchased by any person under the Partition Law, No. 21 of 1977, or which is allotted to a co-owner under a decree for partition shall be deemed to be the tenant cultivator of that extent of paddy land of such purchaser or such co-owner, as the case may be, and the provisions of this Act, shall apply accordingly.

(3) Where a tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land notifies the Commissioner-General in writing that he has been evicted from such extent, the Commissioner-General shall refer the matter to the Agrarian Tribunal and direct the Tribunal to hold an inquiry for the purpose of deciding the question whether or not such person has been evicted.

(4) The notification referred to in subsection (3) shall be made within six months from the date of such eviction.

(5) If at the inquiry held by the Agrarian Tribunal, it is proved to the satisfaction of the Agrarian Tribunal that the tenant cultivator had been evicted from such extent, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that such eviction had been made by, or at the instance of, the landlord.

(6) The landlord of the extent of paddy land and the person evicted shall be given an opportunity of being heard in person or through a representative, at the inquiry held by the Agrarian Tribunal. The decision of the Agrarian Tribunal after such inquiry shall be communicated in writing and, sent by registered post to the Commissioner-General, the landlord and the person evicted. If the landlord or the person evicted is aggrieved by the decision of the Agrarian Tribunal, he may, within thirty days of the communication of the decision to him, by petition in writing in which the other person shall be mentioned as respondent, appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision, on a question of law. A copy of the petition shall be sent to the Commissioner-General under registered post at the time when the appeal is made. Where no appeal is made against the decision within the time allowed therefor, such decision shall be final and conclusive.

(7) Where at any inquiry referred to in subsection (3) the Agrarian Tribunal holds—

- (a) that eviction has been established and no appeal has been made against such decision within the time allowed therefor, or the Court of Appeal has on any such appeal confirmed the decision of the Agrarian Tribunal that eviction has been established ; or
- (b) that eviction has not been established and the Court of Appeal has in appeal varied the decision of the Agrarian Tribunal and held that eviction has been established, then—
 - (i) the person evicted shall be entitled to have the use and occupation of the extent of paddy land restored to him ; and
 - (ii) the Commissioner-General shall on receipt of the decision of the Agrarian Tribunal or the Court of Appeal, as the case may be, in writing order that every person in occupation of the extent of paddy land shall vacate it on or before such date as shall be specified in such order and if such person fails to comply with such order, he shall be evicted from such extent in accordance with the provisions of section 8 ; and

- (iii) the landlord of such extent shall for each day during which a person in respect of whom an order has been made continues to occupy such extent after the date specified in that order, pay to the person mentioned in sub-paragraph (i), damages at such rate as may be prescribed unless the Agrarian Tribunal or the Court of Appeal has decided that such person was evicted without the knowledge, consent or connivance of such landlord :

Provided that no damages shall be paid in respect of any portion of that extent of paddy land which is cultivated under section 27 during the period specified in this sub-paragraph.

(8) Where the landlord of the extent of paddy land fails or refuses to pay within fourteen days after demand, any sum which he is required to pay as damages under subsection (7), such sum may, on application made by the person evicted to the Magistrate's Court having jurisdiction over the place where such extent is situated, be recovered in like manner as a fine imposed by such Court notwithstanding that such sum may exceed the amount of the fine which that Court may in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction impose.

(9) For the purposes of subsection (8) an order made by the Commissioner-General that the sum specified in such order, as being due from the landlord, shall be proof that such sum is due.

(10) Where a person (hereafter in this subsection referred to as the "lessor") lets any extent of paddy land to any other person (hereafter in this subsection referred to as the "lessee") and the lessee does not become the tenant cultivator of such extent by reason of the fact that he is not the cultivator thereof, then if the lessee lets such extent to any person (hereafter in this subsection referred to as the “sub-tenant cultivator”) and the sub-tenant cultivator become the tenant cultivator of such extent by reason of his being the cultivator thereof, the sub-tenant’s right as the tenant cultivator of such extent shall not be affected in any manner by the termination of the lease granted by the lessor to the lessee :

Provided, that the lessee shall not let such extent of paddy land to a sub-tenant cultivator unless he—

- (a) obtains the consent in writing of the owner of such extent of paddy land ; and
- (b) thereafter notifies the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such extent of paddy land wholly or mainly lies :

Provided further that where any extent of paddy land is let by a lessee to a sub-tenant cultivator without obtaining the consent in writing of the owner of such extent of paddy land such sub-tenant cultivator shall not be entitled to any of the rights of a tenant cultivator in respect of such extent of paddy land. The Commissioner-General, after inquiry, shall in writing order that the sub-tenant cultivator shall vacate such extent of paddy land on or before such date as shall be specified in that order and if such sub-tenant cultivator fails to comply with such order he shall be evicted from such extent in accordance with the provisions of section 8 and the landlord shall be entitled to cultivate such extent of paddy land.

(11) The rights of a tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land shall not be affected in any manner by the sale (whether voluntary or in execution of a decree of Court), the transfer by gifts, testamentary disposition or by assignment, or by devolution under the law of inheritance, of the right, title and interest of the landlord of such extent.

(12) The rights of a tenant cultivator to occupy and use any extent of paddy land shall not be sequestered, seized or sold in execution of a decree or process of any court.

(13) Nothing in Chapter LXVI of the Civil Procedure Code (inserted in that Code by the Civil Procedure Code (Amendment) Act, No. 79 of 1988,) shall be read or construed as empowering a Judge of the Small Claims Court to hold an inquiry or make any Order under the aforesaid Chapter in respect of a dispute affecting paddy lands within the meaning of this Act.

(14) If any person directly or indirectly makes use of, or threatens to make use of, force, violence or restraint, or inflicts or threatens to inflict, any harm, damage or loss upon or against a tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land in order to induce, compel or prevail upon that tenant cultivator to refrain from exercising any right or privilege conferred upon him by or under this Act, such person shall be deemed to interfere in the occupation and use of such extent by that tenant cultivator.

(15) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand rupees.

Procedure for eviction.

8. (1) Where any person who has been ordered under this Act, by the Commissioner-General to vacate any extent of agricultural land, fails to comply with such order, the Commissioner-General or any other person authorised in that behalf by the Commissioner-General may present to the Magistrate's Court within whose local jurisdiction such extent wholly or mainly lies, a written report—

- (a) setting out the nature of such order and the person to whom it was issued, describing the extent of land to which such order relates ;
- (b) stating that the person who has been ordered to vacate has failed to so vacate such extent of land ; and
- (c) praying for an order to evict such person and all other persons in occupation of such extent of land from such extent, and stating the name of the person to whom delivery of possession of such extent should be made.

(2) Where a written report is presented to a Magistrate's Court under subsection (1), such court shall direct the Fiscal or peace officer to forthwith evict the person specified in such report and all other persons in occupation of the extent of agricultural land specified in the order and to deliver possession of such extent to the person mentioned in such report as the person to whom delivery of possession of such extent should be made.

(3) The Fiscal or peace officer entrusted with the execution of the order of eviction shall comply with the directions of the Magistrate's Court by which such order was made and shall make a due return setting out the manner in which he executed such order.

(4) In executing an order of eviction the Fiscal or the peace officer or any person authorised by either of them may use such force as may be necessary to enter the extent of agricultural land to which the order relates and evict any person bound by the order and to deliver possession of such extent in accordance with the direction of the Magistrate's Court which issued the order.

(5) Any person who unlawfully dispossesses any person who has been placed in possession of an extent of agricultural land by the Fiscal under subsection (3), shall be guilty of an offence under this Act. A certificate by the Commissioner-General that any person has been so dispossessed shall be evidence of that fact.

(6) Upon conviction for an offence under subsection (5) the Magistrate shall direct the Fiscal to place the person who has been unlawfully dispossessed from such extent, in possession of such extent by evicting any person in occupation of such extent.

9. (1) The Commissioner-General shall by notification published in the Gazette, determine from time to time in accordance with the provisions of this section, the rent to be paid by the tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land.

Rent to be determined by the Commissioner-General.

(2) A determination under subsection (1) shall specify the number of bushels of paddy, not less than ten, in respect of each cultivated acre of any extent of paddy land in any region to which such determination applies or a portion, not less than one-quarter of the total yield of the paddy from that extent reduced by the amount of any charge which may be imposed under this Act, whichever is greater, as the rent payable for that extent, for each paddy cultivation season.

(3) The rent determined under subsection (1) may be varied in respect of different administrative districts or in respect of different parts of any administrative district.

(4) Where the rent determined under subsection (1) is computed on the basis of a specified number of bushels or kilo's of paddy for each cultivated acre, the rent for any cultivated area of less than one acre shall be computed in the proportion that such area bears to one acre.

(5) The rent payable for any extent of paddy land shall for each paddy cultivation season, consist of—

- (a) the quantity of paddy computed for that extent in accordance with such determination in force under the provisions of this section as is applicable to paddy lands of the administrative district or part thereof in which that extent lies ; or
- (b) the equivalent in money of the rent payable in paddy under paragraph (a) of this subsection computed according to the price fixed for the time being for paddy of the same description as the paddy from that extent in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(6) Where the Commissioner-General is satisfied after inquiry that the tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land has willfully neglected the cultivation of such extent during any paddy cultivation season in which cultivation was possible, or has without reasonable cause, committed during any paddy cultivation season a breach of any established custom relating to cultivation, the Commissioner-General may order that the rent for such season payable in paddy under the provisions of this Act in respect of such extent shall be computed on such basis as is specified by the Commissioner-General and according to the rent in paddy so computed, the rent in money shall be computed.

(7) Where the cultivation of the extent of paddy land of a tenant cultivator is a partial failure during any paddy cultivation season for any cause other than his fault or neglect, the rent payable by him in such season in respect of such extent shall be reduced by such reasonable amount as shall be determined by the Commissioner-General.

(8) Where any dispute arises between the tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land and his landlord as to the amount of the rent payable in respect of such extent under the determination made under subsection (1), such dispute may be referred for decision to the Commissioner-General. The decision of the Commissioner-General on such dispute shall be communicated in writing and be sent by registered post to such tenant cultivator and to his landlord and such decision on any such dispute shall be final.

10. (1) When the landlord informs the Commissioner-General that the tenant cultivator is in arrears of rent in respect of an extent of paddy land the Commissioner-General shall cause the Agrarian Tribunal to hold an Inquiry into such matter. Where the Agrarian Tribunal determines after such inquiry, that the rent is in arrears and the amount of such arrears of rent, it shall communicate its decision in writing to the tenant cultivator, the landlord and the Commissioner-General.

Consequence of failure by tenant cultivator to pay rent.

(2) On receipt of the notice of such decision the Commissioner-General shall give notice in writing to the tenant cultivator that his tenancy in respect of such extent would be terminated if he fails to pay such arrears in either paddy or money, within the time specified in such notice.

(3) A tenant cultivator who fails to pay the arrears of rent within the time specified therefor in the notice shall be deemed to have forfeited his tenancy and shall vacate such extent on being ordered to do so by the Commissioner-General.

(4) If the tenant cultivator fails to vacate such extent of paddy land within the time specified in the notice the Commissioner-General shall cause such tenant cultivator to be evicted from such extent of paddy land in accordance with the provisions of section 8.

(5) When the tenancy rights of a tenant cultivator has been terminated in accordance with the provisions of this section the possession of such extent of paddy land shall be handed over to the owner or the person entitled to such extent of paddy land, or where there is a dispute as to the ownership of such extent, to the agrarian Development Council of the area in which such extent is situated.

When rent is not payable.

11. Where the extent of paddy land of a tenant cultivator is not cultivated during any paddy cultivation season or the cultivation of such extent during such season completely fails for any cause other than his fault or neglect, no rent for such season shall be payable in respect of such extent.

Time and place for paying rent and when rent commences to be in arrears.

12. The rent for any paddy cultivation season shall be paid at the threshing floor itself, on or before the fifteenth day after harvesting of the crop from such extent for such season and if not so paid shall commence to be in arrears on the first day after the said fifteenth day.

Tenant cultivator to inform landlord of the dates of harvesting and removal of paddy.

13. (1) It shall be the duty of the tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land to give to his landlord and the Agrarian Development Council within whose local jurisdiction such extent wholly or mainly lies—

- (a) at least ten days' notice of the date on which it is intended to commence the harvesting of the crop from such extent ; and
- (b) at least seven days' notice of the date on which it is intended to remove from the threshing floor, the crop harvested from such extent.

(2) Any tenant cultivator who fails to comply with the provisions of paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

14. (1) The rent in respect of any extent of paddy land shall be paid by the tenant cultivator of such extent to the landlord of such extent or to his authorised agent either directly or through the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such extent is situate, where such landlord fails or refuses to accept such rent.

To whom rent is payable.

(2) Where there are two or more landlords of an extent of paddy land they shall appoint a person for the purpose of collecting the rent from the tenant cultivator of such extent, and shall in writing sent by registered post notify the name and address of the person appointed for such purpose, to the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such extent is situate. If no such notification is made, such rent shall be paid directly or through such Development Council to the person, if any, who customarily collects such rent for such landlord.

(3) If there is no person entitled to collect such rent or if there is any dispute as to the proportion in which such rent should be paid to each landlord, or as to the person to whom such rent should be paid, such rent computed in money in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be paid by such tenant cultivator to the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such extent is situate, and such Development Council shall pay such amount less any expenses incurred by such Development Council in handling such rent to the appropriate District Court within whose local jurisdiction such extent wholly or mainly lies, to be drawn by the person or persons entitled thereto.

(4) Where the amount referred to in subsection (3) is not drawn by the person or persons entitled thereto within one year after the date on which such sum was paid to the Court, the Court shall cause such sum to be paid into the Agrarian Development Fund and no person thereafter shall be entitled to receive such amount.

Provisions applicable where rent is paid through the Agrarian Development Council to the landlord or to his authorised agent.

15. (1) Where the tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land instead of paying the rent for such extent directly to the landlord of such extent or to his authorised agent pays it to the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such extent is wholly or mainly situate, such Council shall—

- (a) if such rent is paid in money, cause the amount of such rent to be transmitted to such landlord or to his authorised agent, as the case may be ; or
- (b) if such rent is paid in paddy, cause to be sent to such landlord or to his authorised agent, as the case may be, a written notice sent by registered post requesting him to take delivery of such paddy within thirty days of the date of such notice ; and
- (c) deduct from such rent any expenses incurred by such Council in the handling of such rent.

(2) Where the rent for any extent of paddy land is paid in paddy to the Agrarian Development Council within whose area such extent is wholly or mainly situate, and such rent is not claimed by the person entitled thereto within thirty days of the date of the notice sent to him under subsection (1), such Council may cause the paddy to be sold and shall cause the proceeds of the sale to be transmitted to such persons.

(3) Where any sum of money transmitted (otherwise than by money order or postal order) to any person under this section by the Agrarian Development Council within whose area such extent is wholly or mainly situate is not claimed by such person within one year after the date on which such sum was transmitted, such sum shall be paid into the Agrarian Development Fund by such Council and no person thereafter shall be entitled to demand or receive such sum or the rent which such sum represents.

Receipts to be given for payment of rent.

16. (1) The person entitled to collect the rent in respect of any extent of paddy land shall, on receiving the rent, issue a receipt to the person by whom the rent is paid.

(2) Every such receipt shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by regulation.

(3) The person entitled to collect the rent under subsection (1) shall if he fails to comply with that subsection and the regulations made under subsection (2), be guilty of an offence under this Act.

17. Where any rent in respect of any extent of paddy land is in arrears, the amount of rent in arrears computed in money in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall bear simple interest at the prescribed rate.

Interest to be paid on rent in arrears.

18. (1) Where any sum is due from the tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land to his landlord as rent in arrears or interest on such rent or both, the landlord may apply in writing to the Commissioner-General who shall upon such application cause the Agrarian Tribunal to hold an inquiry in respect of such application. If the Agrarian Tribunal decides that any amount is due to be paid to the landlord by the tenant cultivator and informs the Commissioner-General of the same, then the Commissioner-General shall make an order for the payment of such amount in money or in paddy or both in money and in paddy in the manner prescribed in such order and within the period specified therein.

Recovery of rent and interest in arrears.

(2) If such tenant cultivator fails to pay such sum within the period specified by the order under subsection (1) such sum may be recovered upon application being made by the landlord to the Magistrate's Court having jurisdiction over the place where the paddy land in respect of which the rent is due is situated in like manner as a fine imposed by such Court notwithstanding that such sum may exceed the amount of the fine which that Court may in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction impose, and any sum so recovered shall be paid by such Court to the applicant landlord.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) an order by the Commissioner-General that the sum specified in the certificate is due to the landlord from the tenant cultivator shall be prima facie proof that such sum is due.

Fixing of compensation to be paid to the tenant cultivator.

19. (1) The landlord of any extent of paddy land may make application to the Commissioner-General to have such extent exempted from the application of the provisions of section 6.

(2) The Commissioner-General shall, after inquiry, make order that the provisions of section 6 shall cease to apply to the extent of paddy land in respect of which an application has been made to him under subsection (1), upon being satisfied that the applicant has paid to the tenant cultivator of that extent, compensation of a sum not less than the equivalent in money of the number of bushels of paddy that can be obtained from such extent during one season (regard being had, for this purpose, to the number of bushels of paddy that can be obtained from an acre of paddy land in the area in which such extent is situated) multiplied by ten.

Application of Land Acquisition Act.

20. (1) Any paddy land specified in section 6, being a paddy land which is cultivated by a tenant cultivator and which has not been sold to such tenant cultivator at the expiration of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be required for the purposes of this Act, and may be acquired under the Land Acquisition Act.

(2) A paddy land acquired under the provisions of subsection (1) shall vest in the Land Bank established by this Act.

(3) The tenant cultivators of any paddy land acquired under subsection (1) shall be paid compensation computed in accordance to section 19 of this Act.

Particulars of land to be submitted by landlord and the tenant cultivator.

21. (1) Every landlord who owns an extent of paddy land and every tenant cultivator of an extent of paddy land shall furnish information regarding such extent of paddy land to the Commissioner-General. Regulations may be made prescribing the nature of the information required to be furnished and the forms to be used for such purpose.

(2) The landlord and the tenant cultivator shall for the purpose of furnishing the information required under subsection (1) examine the Agricultural Lands Register in operation for the time being, in the area in which such extent of paddy land is situated.

(3) Where there is a change in the information furnished under subsection (1) the landlord and the tenant cultivator shall notify the Commissioner-General of such change within six months of the occurrence of such change.

(4) A landlord or tenant cultivator who fails to comply with the requirements of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

PART II

UTILISING AGRICULTURAL LANDS IN ACCORDANCE WITH AGRICULTURAL POLICIES

22. (1) It shall be the duty and responsibility of every owner cultivator or occupier of any agricultural land to cultivate such land with such crops or rear such breeds of livestock and breed inland fish for the efficient management and better cultivation of agricultural land, as are best suited for the land, having regard to the extent and the situation and the natural resources of the land, in accordance with standards of cultivation as are hereinafter provided by this Act or any regulation made thereunder, with a view to improving the productivity and maintaining efficient standards of production both as to quantity and quality of the produce.

Duties of owner cultivators or occupiers relating to the cultivation and management of agricultural land.

(2) Regulations may be made for prescribing the crops to be cultivated, the livestock to be reared, the fish to be bred according to the situation and natural resources of the land, and generally for the efficient management of agricultural land and for better cultivation.

23. (1) Where the Commissioner-General is informed by the Farmers' Organisation within whose area of authority any agricultural land is situated that such agricultural land is not being cultivated in accordance with the provisions of this

Issuing supervision orders.

Act or the regulations made in that regard or when the Commissioner-General becomes aware in any other manner that an agricultural land is not being cultivated according to the provisions of this Act or regulations made thereunder, the Commissioner-General may, after giving the owner cultivator or occupier of such agricultural land an opportunity of making representations to him or to his authorised representative, by order (hereinafter referred to as a "Supervision Order") place the owner cultivator or occupier under the Commissioner-General's supervision for such period as may be specified in such order.

(2) Regulations may be made prescribing, the manner in which inquiries under subsection (1) are to be conducted, the procedure to be followed in the issuing and implementation of Supervision Orders, and the manner of revoking the same.

Compensation to be paid in respect of agricultural land which is not properly cultivated.

24. (1) Where a Supervision Committee appointed under section 25 reports to the Commissioner-General that the cultivation of the extent of land to which a Supervision Order under section 23 relates has not shown improvement during the period specified in such order, the Commissioner-General shall after inquiry issue an order requiring the owner cultivator or occupier of such land to pay compensation of a sum not exceeding rupees five thousand for each acre of land comprised in such extent or portion thereof, to the credit of the Agrarian Development Fund.

(2) A person aggrieved by an order made under subsection (1) may appeal against the order to the Agrarian Tribunal within whose local jurisdiction the land in respect of which the order is made is situate, within one month at the date of the order. A copy of such appeal shall simultaneously be sent by registered post to the Commissioner-General.

(3) Where no appeal is preferred against an order made by the Commissioner-General under subsection (1) to an Agrarian Tribunal or where such order has been confirmed by the Agrarian Tribunal on appeal, the Commissioner-General shall notify the owner cultivator or occupier by written notice sent by registered post of the final date before which the compensation specified in the order shall be paid.

(4) Where the landlord or occupier fails to pay the compensation on or before the date specified by the Commissioner-General, the Commissioner-General shall make an application to the Magistrate's Court within whose local jurisdiction the land in respect of which the compensation has to be paid is situated, praying that such sum be recovered in like manner as a fine imposed by such Court notwithstanding that such sum may exceed the amount of the fine which that court may in the exercise of its ordinary jurisdiction, impose.

(5) A certificate issued by the Commissioner-General that such sum is due as compensation shall be proof that such sum is so due.

25. (1) The Commissioner-General may appoint Supervision Committees for every Agrarian Development Council Area.

Appointment of Supervision Committees.

(2) The members of a Supervision Committee referred to in subsection (1) shall be appointed by the Commissioner-General and shall consist of not more than five persons appointed from amongst employees of such departments, public corporations and statutory bodies as are functioning in that Agrarian Development Council Area.

(3) The Commissioner-General shall appoint a Secretary for every Supervision Committee referred to in subsection (1).

(4) Regulations may be made in providing for the manner of appointment of members of the Supervision Committees, their periods of office, the quorum for, and the procedure for transaction of business at, meetings of the Committees.

26. (1) Where the Commissioner-General is informed by a Supervision Committee that the cultivation of an agricultural land which has been subject to a Supervision Order for one year is not being satisfactorily cultivated even in the succeeding year, the Commissioner-General shall after affording an opportunity to the owner cultivator or occupier of that land to show cause to the Commissioner-General or his representative as to why he should not be dispossessed of the land, issue an order (hereinafter called an “order of dispossession”) dispossessing the owner or occupier of the land of his right to cultivate such land and to receive the crop from such land for such period as is specified in the order.

(2) Where the person on whom the order under subsection (1) is served is aggrieved by such order he shall within thirty days of the receipt of such order prefer an appeal to the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister. A copy of such appeal shall be simultaneously sent to the Commissioner-General by registered post.

(3) Where no appeal is preferred against such order under subsection (2), such order shall be final and conclusive.

(4) Where an order of Dispossession is final and conclusive under subsection (3), the Commissioner-General shall evict such owner cultivator or occupier of such agricultural land in accordance with the provisions of section 8 of this Act and shall deliver such agricultural land to the Land Bank.

(5) Where an Order of Dispossession has been entered into in respect of an agricultural land, such land shall not be handed back to the owner cultivator or occupier except on payment by him of all expenses incurred on improvements effected to such land and all such other expenses as have been incurred in relation to such land.

(6) Regulations may be made in respect of the manner of issuing, service of, and giving effect to an Order of Dispossession, the procedure for revocation of such Order, and the procedure for handing back possession.

Cultivation of land subject to a dispute.

27. (1) Where the Commissioner-General is satisfied that any agricultural land is not being cultivated due to the existence of a dispute relating to that land, the Commissioner-General may, after affording an opportunity to, the owner or occupier of such agricultural land to make representations to the Commissioner-General or his authorised representative, issue an order requiring the person on whom the order is served to vacate the land within the period specified in that order and deliver possession of such land to the Commissioner-General or his authorised representative.

(2) Every order shall be sent by registered post to the person to whom it relates :

Provided, however that where there are several owner cultivators or occupiers of such land and the addresses of such owner cultivators or occupiers cannot be ascertained, the exhibition of such order in a conspicuous place in or upon the land to which the order relates, shall be deemed to be service of the order on all the owner cultivators and occupiers thereof.

(3) Where a person on whom an order under subsection (1) is served fails to vacate the land within the period specified in such order the Commissioner-General shall evict such person in accordance with the provisions of section 8.

(4) Until the dispute relating to that land is settled or a decision is made in respect of that dispute such agricultural land may be delivered to the Land Bank for the purpose of cultivation of such agricultural land, and the income derived therefrom shall be disposed of in the manner directed by the Commissioner-General.

28. (1) The Commissioner-General may decide whether an extent of land is a paddy land.

(2) The Commissioner-General may, for the purpose of making a decision under subsection (1), call for and obtain the observations and information from the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority the extent of land is situate, and from the relevant government departments statutory boards and institutions. It shall be the duty of every such government department, statutory board and institution to furnish such observations and information as soon as practicable.

The Commissioner-General may decide that certain land is a paddy land.

Identification of paddy lands which can be cultivated with paddy and other crops.

29. (1) The Commissioner-General shall identify paddy lands from which sufficient production can be obtained when cultivated with paddy and paddy lands from which sufficient production can be obtained when cultivated with other agricultural crops. The Commissioner-General shall for the purposes of such identification, obtain the observations of the Farmer Organisation and the Agrarian Development Councils, within whose area of authority such land is situated.

(2) The Commissioner-General shall appoint Productivity Committees for each administrative district or for different portions of an administrative district for the purpose assisting in the identification of lands for the purposes of subsection (1).

(3) The Productivity Committees shall consist persons employed in government departments, statutory bodies or institutions and of persons engaged in agriculture, in each such administrative district.

(4) Every Productivity Committee shall appoint a Secretary to its Committee.

(5) Upon identification of the paddy lands from which sufficient production can be obtained by cultivating other agricultural crops, the Commissioner-General may by a notification published in the Gazette declare that the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of section 6 shall cease to apply to such paddy lands.

(6) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of section 6 of this Act, shall not apply to any person who cultivates any paddy land in respect of which a Notification has been published under subsection (5).

30. (1) Paddy lands which have been identified by the Commissioner-General as paddy lands from which the maximum production can be obtained by the cultivation of paddy shall be cultivated with paddy during every season in which paddy can be cultivated thereon.

Every paddy land which can be cultivated with paddy shall be utilised for the cultivation of paddy.

(2) Where paddy cannot be cultivated during any season in an extent of paddy land which has been identified under subsection (1), due to a natural or other cause an agricultural crop which is not a perennial crop may be cultivated on such paddy land after obtaining the written permission of the Commissioner-General.

(3) In the case of paddy lands from which satisfactory production can be obtained by the cultivation of any crop other than paddy, such paddy land may, subject to the provisions of section 29(5), be cultivated with half yearly crops other than paddy after obtaining the written permission of the Commissioner-General. For the purpose of cultivating long term crops in such paddy lands, the written permission of the Commissioner-General shall be obtained prior to the commencement of such cultivation.

(4) Every person who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(5) A certificate issued by the Commissioner-General to the effect that the provisions of this section have been contravened, shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie proof of such fact.

31. (1) The Commissioner-General or an officer appointed under subsection (2) of section 38 may for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this Act, at all reasonable times enter upon any extent of agricultural land and may inspect such extent of agricultural land.

The Commissioner-General and the officers to have the power to inspect agricultural lands to find out the purpose for which such land is used.

(2) Any officer inspecting an agricultural land under subsection (1) shall make such inspections and inquiries as may be necessary to ascertain whether—

- (a) the extent of agricultural land is being filled up or is about to be filled up with soil or other material ;

- (b) action is being taken to construct some structure on, or any construction is being done in, that extent of agricultural land ;
- (c) action is being taken to remove soil or soil is being removed from that extent of agricultural land ;

- (e) utilises an extent of paddy land in violation of the terms and conditions of the permission issued by the Commissioner-General, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(2) Any person who aids or abets a person in committing any of the acts specified in subsection (1) shall be guilty of the same offence.

(3) When any person commits an offence under subsection (1) the Commissioner-General or an officer appointed in accordance with subsection (2) of section 38 shall forthwith issue notice to all such persons involved, to abstain from committing such offence. The exhibition of such notice in or on a prominent place in such extent of paddy land shall be deemed to be service on all such persons.

(4) A notice which is exhibited under subsection (3) on any extent of paddy land, shall contain a brief statement giving the nature of the offence committed in respect of that extent of paddy land, and the penalty to which such person could be made subject for the commission of the offence, if proved.

Using a paddy land for a purpose other than an agricultural cultivation without the permission of the Commissioner-General to be punishable.

(5) Where an offence under subsection (1) is being committed by any person or when any course of action is taken to do so, an officer appointed under subsection (2) of section 38 shall complain to the officer in charge of the police station of the area where such extent of paddy land is situated.

(6) Upon a complaint under subsection (5) being made the officer in charge of such police station shall take into custody all persons mentioned in such complaint and all persons as he believes are involved in such offence and any implements, instruments, machinery, vehicle or any other article or document.

(7) All such persons as are taken into custody under subsection (6) and any implement, instrument, machine, vehicle or any other article or document shall forthwith be produced before the Magistrate's Court.

(8) Every person guilty of an offence under this section shall, on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding six months.

(9) Upon conviction of a person of an offence under this section, the person so convicted shall for every day in respect of which the offence is so continued after conviction be required to pay a fine of one thousand rupees for each such day.

(10) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this section, the court may order such person to remove any soil, material or construction with respect to which such offence was committed within such period as may be specified by court.

33. (1) No person shall fill any extent of paddy land or remove any soil from any extent of paddy land or erect any structure on any extent of paddy land except with the written permission of the Commissioner-General.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Filling up of paddy land or utilising paddy land for any purpose other than cultivation.

(3) Where the Commissioner-General, or the Additional Commissioner-General or Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner is informed that any person is acting in contravention of the provision of subsection (1) the Commissioner-General or the Additional Commissioner-General or Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner may make an application in writing, substantially in the Form set out in the Schedule to this Act to the Magistrate's Court within whose local jurisdiction such extent of paddy land or any part thereof, is situated and praying for the issue of an order restraining the person so contravening the provisions of subsection (1) and his agents and servants from acting in contravention of the provisions of subsection (1).

(4) Every application under this section shall be supported by an affidavit verifying to the matters set forth in the application.

(5) Upon receipt of the application the Magistrate shall determine whether an act has been committed in contravention of this section and upon arriving at such determination the Magistrate shall make an interim order restraining the person named in the application and his servants or agents from acting in contravention of subsection (1) and shall forthwith issue summons on the person or persons named in the application to appear and show cause on the date specified in such summons, as to why such person or and servants or agents should not be restrained, as prayed for in the application.

(6) (a) If on the date specified in the summons the person to whom such summons has been issued fails to appear or informs the court that he has no cause to show against the issuing of such order the court shall confirm the interim order.

(b) If the person on whom summons has been issued duly appears in court and states that he has cause to show against issuing of such order, the Magistrate's Court may proceed forthwith to inquire into the same or may set the case for inquiry on a later date.

(7) Court shall not be competent to call for any evidence from the Commissioner-General, or Additional Commissioner-General or Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner in support of the application.

(8) If after the inquiry the Magistrate is not satisfied that the person showing cause has lawful authority to fill the extent of paddy land or remove any soil therefrom or erect a structure thereon, he shall confirm the interim order made under subsection (5) restraining such person and his servants and agents from doing any act in contravention of this section.

(9) (a) Where any person is convicted for an offence under subsection (2) of this section the Court may make order that any implements, instruments, machinery or vehicles used in, or in connection with, the commission of the offence shall be forfeited to the State. Any implement, instrument, machinery or vehicle so forfeited to the State shall vest in the State free from all encumbrances. Such vesting shall take effect—

- (i) where no appeal has been preferred to the Court of Appeal or a High Court established by Article 154P of the Constitution against the order of forfeiture, upon the expiry of the period within which an appeal may be preferred to Court of Appeal or such High Court ;
- (ii) where an appeal has been preferred to the Court of Appeal or to the High Court established under Article 154P of the Constitution against the order of forfeiture, upon the determination of the Appeal confirming or upholding the order of forfeiture.

(b) The Commissioner-General shall take possession of any implement, instrument, machinery or vehicle vested in the State under this section and may sell or otherwise dispose of the same as he may think fit. The proceeds of such sale shall be credited to the Agrarian Development Fund.

34. (1) No person shall use an extent of paddy land for any purpose other than for agricultural cultivation except with the written permission of the Commissioner-General.

Paddy lands should not be used for purposes other than agricultural cultivation.

(2) The Commissioner-General may at any time withdraw such written permission by notice served on such person having regard to the need to increase agricultural production or for the contravention of the conditions attached to such permission by the Commissioner-General.

(3) If any extent of paddy land is used by any person in contravention of the provisions of subsection (1) such person shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(4) Where the written permission under the provisions of subsection (2) has been withdrawn the extent of paddy land shall be restored, on or before a date specified by the Commissioner-General, to the same condition as it was before such written permission was given.

(5) Any person who fails to so restore the land as required by subsection (4) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and shall after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty five thousand rupees and in default of payment of the fine shall be liable to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding three months.

(6) Where the offence is continued after conviction the offender shall be liable to a fine of rupees one thousand for each day in respect of which such offence is continued after conviction. The fine so imposed shall be recovered in like manner as a fine imposed by Court and shall be credited to the Agrarian Development Fund.

35. (1) Where any extent of paddy land is cultivated with any other agricultural crop as permitted under this Act, Commissioner-General shall determine from time to time in accordance with the provisions of this section, the rent to be paid by the tenant cultivator of that extent of paddy land, to the landlord, in respect of such extent.

Rent to be paid in respect of other agricultural crops.

(2) In determining the rent payable in respect of any extent of paddy land cultivated with any other agricultural crop, the Commissioner-General shall have regard to the cost of production and the market value, of such crop.

(3) The rent determined under subsection (1) may vary in respect of different administrative districts or in respect of different parts of an administrative district.

(4) Where the rent determined under subsection (1) is computed on the basis of a specified sum of money for each cultivated acre the rent for any cultivated area of less than one acre shall be computed in the proportion that such area bears to one acre.

(5) The rent determined under subsection (1) shall be paid within thirty days of the harvesting of the crop on such extent. If the rent is not so paid such rent shall commence to be in arrears on the first day after the said thirtieth day.

(6) Action may be taken in respect of the rent in arrears for that extent, in accordance with the provisions of section 10 of this Act.

Permission given to obtain mineral resources in a paddy land.

36. (1) Where the tenant cultivator of any extent of paddy land refuses to give his consent to the owner of such extent of paddy land to extract any mineral resources from that extent of paddy land, the Commissioner-General may permit the owner of such extent of paddy land to use an extent not exceeding twenty perches of that extent of paddy land for the purpose of extracting such mineral resources during a specified period of time. The permission granted under this section is permission granted for the use of such extent of paddy land and shall not be construed as a licence permitting the extraction of such mineral resources.

(2) Prior to granting the owner of that extent of paddy land permission under subsection (1), the Commissioner-General shall order the landlord to pay the tenant cultivator, compensation for the loss of possession of that extent for the period of time during which the owner is given permission to obtain mineral resources from that extent of paddy land. In determining the amount of compensation to be paid the Commissioner-General shall take into consideration the bushels of paddy which can be obtained from that extent of paddy land during the period of time for which permission has been granted.

(3) Where the tenant cultivator refuses to accept the compensation ordered under subsection (2), the compensation shall be deposited with the Agrarian Development Council within whose area of authority such paddy land is situated.

(4) When compensation is deposited with an Agrarian Development Council under subsection (3), the Council shall inform the person to whom such compensation is due, by letter sent by registered post, to take necessary steps to collect such compensation within a period of six months of the date of the letter.

(5) If such compensation is not collected by such person within the period of six months referred to in subsection (4) such compensation shall be credited to the Agrarian Development Fund.

(6) The permission granted by the Commissioner-General under subsection (1) shall be deemed not to be an eviction of the tenant cultivator from the occupation of such extent of paddy land.

37. (1) There shall be established a Land Bank entrusted with the possession of certain agricultural lands, under this Act for all or any of the following purposes :—

Establishment of the Land Bank.

- (a) granting of such agricultural lands to cultivators who can improve agricultural productivity of such lands ;

Survey of agricultural lands.

(2) The Agrarian Development Council may recover the proportionate costs of surveying the agricultural lands within its area of authority, from the owners or occupiers of those agricultural lands, and it shall be the duty of such owners and occupiers to pay the same.

(3) When any person defaults in the payment of the costs of survey required to be paid by him under the provisions of subsection (2), the Commissioner-General on being informed in writing by the Agrarian Development Council of such default, shall cause the Agrarian Tribunal of the area to hold an inquiry in respect of such default.

(4) Where the Agrarian Tribunal determines that any person has defaulted in the payment of the costs of survey required to be paid by him under subsection (2), the Tribunal shall order such person to pay such costs to the Agrarian Development Council before a specified date. Copies of such order shall be sent to the Commissioner-General and the Agrarian Development Council.

(5) When any person defaults in the payment of the costs he is ordered to pay under subsection (4), the Agrarian Development Council or any officer authorised in that behalf by the Council may apply to the Magistrate's Court within whose jurisdiction such person resides for the recovery of such costs in the same manner as a fine imposed by such court and the costs so recovered shall be paid to the Agrarian Development Council.

(6) A certificate of the Agrarian Tribunal that the sum of money specified therein is due to be paid to the Agrarian Development Council as costs of survey by the person specified therein shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Recovery of acreage tax.

56. (1) Every owner or occupier of agricultural land who is required to pay acreage tax to the Agricultural Development Council shall pay such tax to the Agrarian Development Council on or before the thirty first day of March each year.

(2) If any person fails to pay the acreage tax for any year in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) he shall be deemed to be in default.

(3) Where any person has defaulted in the payment of the acreage tax the Agrarian Development Council shall by a written notice require him to pay such tax on or before the date mentioned in such notice.

(4) When the Commissioner-General is satisfied after inquiry that a person to whom a notice has been sent under subsection (3), has defaulted in the payment of the sum of money mentioned in such notice within the period allowed therefor and that such sum is due as acreage tax such sum shall on application made by an officer authorised in that behalf by the Commissioner-General to the Magistrate's Court within whose jurisdiction such land is situated, be recovered in the same manner as a fine imposed by such court.

(5) A certificate issued under the signature of the Commissioner-General or of any officer authorised in that behalf for the purpose of subsection (4), stating that the sum of money mentioned therein is due to be paid to the Agrarian Development Council by the person whose name is specified in such Certificate, as acreage tax shall be prima facie evidence that such sum of money is due to be paid to the Agrarian Development Council by such person.

57. (1) When any person who has defaulted in the payment of a loan given to him by an Agrarian Development Council or by a Farmers' Organisation, such Council or organisation may by a written notice by registered post require such person to repay such loan within the period mentioned in such notice.

Loans given by Farmers' Organisations and by Agrarian Development Councils to be recoverable.

(2) When the Commissioner-General is informed in writing that a person to whom a written notice has been sent under subsection (1), has failed to pay the sum of money specified in such notice within the period specified therein, the Commissioner-General shall cause the Agrarian Tribunal to hold an Inquiry in respect of that matter.

(3) Where the Agrarian Tribunal determines that any person has defaulted in the payment of a loan given to him by the Agrarian Development Council or a Farmers' Organisation, it shall by written notice require such person to pay the sum in default within a specified period of time.

(4) Where a person fails to pay a sum of money he is required to pay by a notice under subsection (3) within the period specified in such notice, an application shall be made by the Agrarian Development Council or the Farmers' Organisation to the Magistrate's Court within whose jurisdiction such person resides or the land in respect of which the loan has been given is situated and such sum of money shall be recovered in the same manner as a fine imposed by such Court.

(5) A certificate under the hand of the Agrarian Tribunal to the effect the sum of money stated therein is due from the person specified therein as repayment of a loan, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

58. (1) The accounts of every Agrarian Development Council shall be maintained in such form and shall contain such particulars as the Commissioner-General may with the concurrence of the Minister in charge of the subject of Finance for the time being specify. The accounts of every Agrarian Development Council for each year shall be audited by the Auditor-General.

of Agrarian Development Council.

59. (1) Article 154 of the Constitution shall apply to the audit of the accounts of every Agrarian Development Council as if such Council were a public corporation within the meaning of the Constitution. However, there shall not be any obstacle to the Commissioner-General setting out the auditing procedure to be followed by any of the above Councils.

(2) The Auditor-General shall disallow every item of the accounts which in his opinion is irregular or unlawful and recommend that the Commissioner-General surcharge the same on the officer or employee of such Agrarian Development Council making or effecting such payment and that the Commissioner-General charge against any officer or employee any sum which ought to have been but is not brought into account by such officer or employee. The Commissioner-General shall thereupon certify the amount due from such person.

(3) Prior to certifying any such surcharge or disallowance the Commissioner-General shall notify such person of the proposed surcharge or disallowance and afford such person an opportunity to make representations or be heard against such surcharge or disallowance. The Commissioner-General shall thereupon inform such person of his decision together with his reasons therefor.

(4) Where a surcharge or disallowance against any person has been certified by the Commissioner-General such certificate shall be conclusive proof of the matters stated therein.

(5) Any person aggrieved by any surcharge or disallowance may within thirty days of the date on which the decision of the Commissioner-General is communicated to him appeal against the decision to the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister with a copy of the appeal to the Commissioner-General. It shall be lawful for such Secretary upon any such appeal to decide the question at issue according to the merits of the case.

(6) The Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister may by order, direct the recovery from the person making such appeal the whole or any portion of the amount surcharged or disallowed, as the case may be, if he thinks that there are grounds therefor, and if he finds that the surcharge or disallowance has been lawfully made but in the particular circumstance of the case it is fair and equitable that the surcharge or disallowance be remitted, he may, by order, direct that the same shall be remitted but that the amount of the costs and expenses which may have been incurred by the Commissioner-General in the enforcing of such surcharge or disallowance or such portion of it as may be determined by the Secretary, shall be recovered from such person.

(7) Upon receipt of the certificate regarding the surcharge or disallowance or the decision of the Secretary made upon an appeal the Commissioner-General shall by a notification sent by registered post require such person to pay the sum set out in the notification before the date specified therein, being a date not later than three months from the date of the notification.

(8) Where any person fails to comply with the requirements of a notification under subsection (7), the Commissioner-General shall file a certificate setting out the details of the sum of money that is due, the name of the person and his last known place of residence and the Magistrate's Court within whose jurisdiction such place of residence is situated and such sum shall be recovered from such person in like manner as a fine imposed by such Court.
