Act, No. 2 of 2013

twenty-four hours, to the effect that it is necessary to detain such person for the purpose of further investigations, be extended upon an Order made in that behalf by the Magistrate for a further period not exceeding twenty-four hours, so however that the aggregate period of detention shall not exceed forty-eight hours:

Provided further, that any person arrested and detained for a further period shall be afforded an opportunity to consult an Attorney-at-Law of his choice and to communicate with any relative or friend of his choice during the period of such detention.

Direct indictment in case of offence committed in aggravating circumstances.

3. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, where there are aggravating circumstances or circumstances that give rise to public disquiet in connection with the commission of an offence, specified in the Second Schedule to the Judicature Act, No. 2 of 1978, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General to forward indictment directly to the High Court.

(2) The Attorney-General may in forwarding indictment directly in terms of subsection (1) proceed to do so ex mero motu or upon receipt of the relevant record from the Magistrate.

Magistrate to forward record to Attorney-General.

4. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, where there are aggravating circumstances or circumstances that give rise to public disquiet in connection with the commission of an offence, specified in the Second Schedule to the Judicature Act, No. 2 of 1978, the Magistrate shall not hold a preliminary inquiry in terms of Chapter XV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 and shall forthwith forward the record of the proceedings to the Attorney-General and thereafter abide by the instructions of the Attorney-General.

Code of Criminal Procedure (Special Provisions) 3
Act, No. 2 of 2013

(2) Upon receipt of the record of the proceedings by the Magistrate in terms of subsection (1), the Attorney-General shall—

- (a) where he is of the opinion that there are aggravating circumstances or circumstances that give rise to public disquiet in connection with the commission of the aforesaid offence, forward indictment directly to the High Court;
- (b) where he is of the opinion that the circumstances do not warrant the forwarding of direct indictment to the High Court, return the record to the Magistrate within thirty days of the receipt of the same and direct that a preliminary inquiry be held in terms of Chapter XV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.

(3) If the Magistrate proceeds to hold a preliminary inquiry in terms of Chapter XV of the aforesaid Code, the Attorney-General shall, call for the record of the proceedings, for the purpose of considering the forwarding of indictment directly to the High Court. In such an event the Magistrate shall forthwith suspend proceedings and forward the record of the proceedings to the Attorney-General and shall thereafter abide by the instructions of the Attorney-General.

5. Any proceedings in terms of the provisions of this Act shall be concluded within a period of ninety days from the date of the commencement of proceedings under Chapter XV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.

Proceedings to be terminated within ninety days.

6. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter XV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, in the course of holding of an inquiry under the aforesaid Chapter, the following provisions shall apply to the taking of statements of persons who know the facts and circumstances of the case.

Depositions.

4 Code of Criminal Procedure (Special Provisions)
Act, No. 2 of 2013

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (ii), the Magistrate shall read out, or cause to be read out to every witness produced against the accused, in the presence and hearing of the accused, the statement made by the witness in the course of the investigation conducted in terms of Chapter XI of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 and shall ask the witness whether the statement is an accurate record of what he had stated to the police.

(3) (a) If the witness states, in response to an inquiry made of him under subsection (1), that the statement is an accurate record of what he had stated to the police, the Magistrate shall record that fact. The Magistrate shall permit the witness, if the witness so desires, to make such additions or alterations to his original statement. Every such addition or alteration shall be recorded.

(b) The Magistrate shall not permit any cross-examination of the witness by the accused or his pleader, but the Magistrate may put to the witness, any clarification required by the accused or his pleader of any matter arising from the statement made by the witness in the course of the investigation or any additions or alterations to his original statement if any, and may put to the witness any clarification which the Magistrate himself may require of any such matter. Every clarification so made shall be recorded:

Provided that, having considered the nature of the material contained in the statement of a witness made to the police, the prosecution may tender the witness for cross-examination by the accused or his pleader.

(4) The Magistrate shall thereafter read out or cause to be read out to the witness, the statement made by the witness to Court affirming the accuracy of the statement made by him in the course of the investigation and the clarifications if any made by him under subsection (2), and additions or alterations to his original statement if any, made by him under subsection (3), and shall require the witness to swear or affirm to the truth of the matters recorded.

Code of Criminal Procedure (Special Provisions) 5

(5) (a) If on the other hand, the witness states in response to an inquiry made of him under subsection (1), that the statement is not, in its entirety or in part, an accurate record of what he had stated to the police, the Magistrate shall permit the witness to give an account of the circumstances relating to the offence, or as the case may be, to make such additions or alterations to his original statement as the witness may wish to make.

(b) The Magistrate shall not permit any cross-examination of the witness by the accused or his pleader but the Magistrate may put to the witness, any clarification required by the accused or his pleader of any matter arising from the account given, or additions or alterations made by the witness or may put to the witness any clarification that the Magistrate himself may require of any such matter:

Provided that, having considered the nature of the material contained in the statement of a witness made to the police, the prosecution may tender the witness for cross-examination by the accused or his pleader.

(c) The Magistrate shall record the account given, or the additions or alterations made by the witness under paragraph (a) and any clarifications made by the witness under paragraph (b) and read out the same or cause the same to be read out to the witness and shall require the witness to swear or affirm to the truth of the matter so recorded.

(6) Before a witness is produced against the accused, the Magistrate shall permit the accused or his pleader to peruse in open court, the statement made by that witness to the Police in the course of the investigation.

(7) The Magistrate shall sign, and shall cause the witness to sign a certified copy of the statement made by the witness to the Police in the course of the investigation and cause the same to be filed of record. The copy so filed shall for all purposes form part of the record of the inquiry.

6 Code of Criminal Procedure (Special Provisions)
Act, No. 2 of 2013

(8) The Magistrate shall not summon an expert witness or a police officer but shall cause the report of such expert witness or the affidavit of such police officer, as the case may be, to be produced and filed of record:

Provided that, the Magistrate may, for reasons to be recorded and in the case of an expert witness, with the prior sanction of the Attorney-General summon an expert witness or police officer to be present in Court for examination.

(9) Where an expert witness or a police officer appears in Court in response to summons issued on him under subsection (8) the Magistrate shall not permit any cross-examination of such expert witness or police officer by the accused or his pleader but may put to such expert witness or police officer, any clarifications that the accused or his pleader may require, of any matter arising from the report of the expert witness or the affidavit of the police officer, as the case may be, or from the examination of such expert witness or police officer, as the case may be and the Magistrate may himself put to the witness any clarification that he may require of any such matter. Every clarification so made shall be recorded.

(10) A statement made by an expert witness or police officer and the deposition made by a witness tendered for cross-examination under this section, shall be deemed to be admissible in evidence in terms of section 33 of the Evidence Ordinance (Chapter 14).

(11) (a) Where the accused—

- (i) is absconding or has left the island; or
- (ii) is unable to attend or remain in Court by reason of illness and has consented either to the commencement or continuance of the inquiry in his absence, such inquiry may commence or continue without prejudice to him; or

- (b) An Attorney-at-Law may appear for such absent accused.

- (c) The inquiry shall proceed as far as is practicable in accordance with the provisions of this Act except that the provisions of section 416 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 shall not apply to the depositions recorded where there is a trial on indictment in the High Court whether the accused is present in the High Court or not.

(12) The statement made by a witness to the police in the course of the investigation together with, his statement and clarifications, if any, recorded under subsection (3) or the additions, alterations and clarifications made and recorded under subsection (4) or the account given and recorded under subsection (5), shall be regarded for the purposes of this Act, as the deposition of that witness.

(13) Every witness produced against the accused at the inquiry shall be entitled to be represented by an Attorney-at-Law.

(14) If after the conclusion of the procedure set out above, the Magistrate does not consider that the case should be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of section 153 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, the Magistrate shall read the charge to the accused and explain the nature thereof in ordinary language and inform him that he has a right to call witnesses and, if he so desires to give evidence on his own behalf.

8 Code of Criminal Procedure (Special Provisions)
Act, No. 2 of 2013

(15) The provisions of Chapter XV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 shall mutatis mutandis apply to any preliminary inquiry held under the provisions of this Act.

Duration of the Act.

7. (1) The provisions of this Act shall be in operation for a period of two years commencing from the date of coming into operation of this Act.

(2) The Minister may, at any time within one month prior to the expiration of the period of operation of this Act, by Order published in the Gazette, extend for a further period the operation of the Act, so however that the aggregate period of any one extension shall not exceed two years from the date of the extension so granted.

(3) The Order made under subsection (2) shall be operative when the signature of the Minister is affixed thereto and every such Order shall be published in the Gazette.

(4) Every Order made under subsection (3) shall be placed before Parliament within three months from the date of publication of such Order in the Gazette.

(5) A notification specifying of the date on which Parliament has approved the Order shall be published in the Gazette.

Validation.
